

Title IX Investigative/Adjudicatory Process

Report submitted to the university

Title IX Coordinator reaches out to Complainant:
Assess safety; offer resources and opportunity to meet

Case closed

Complainant interested in meeting?

Yes

Title IX intake meeting with Complainant:
Review rights/resources, determine supportive measures, discuss available resolution options

Complainant decides course of action

Case closed
No further action

Title IX Assessment: Course of Action Verified

Yes: Investigative/Adjudicatory Process OR Adaptive Resolution Process

Complainant completes Formal Complaint indicating process selection

Investigative/Adjudicatory Process

Referral to: SARJ Adaptive Resolution (AR) process (see appropriate flowchart)

Notice of allegations, investigation to both parties in writing

Intake meeting with Respondent: Review rights/resources, determine supportive measures

Formal investigation: Facilitated by Title IX office

Draft Investigative Summary: 10 day review by both parties (including evidence)

Final Investigative Summary: Delivered to both parties at least 10 days prior to Review Panel

Note: Parties may choose AR at any time after a Formal Complaint is filed and before the Review Panel begins.

Review/Appeal Panel Process: See appropriate flowchart