

The ACRS Publications Committee announces Volume III
Coming at Eastern Mennonite University Homecoming, October 14-16, 2016

Re-Envisioning Service: The Geography of Our Faith
Brethren and Mennonite Stories Integrating Faith, Life, and the World of Thought
Co-Editors: Ray C. Gingerich and Pat Hostetter Martin

Table of Contents

Foreword: Stanley Green

Series Editor's Preface

Editors' Preface

Introduction: Nancy Heisey

PART I: Re-Envisioning Service as Educators

Kenneth Kreider - Service to Others: An Awesome Journey

Dale Ulrich - One Life, Many Educational Roles in Service

Emerett Bittinger - *Heritage and Promise: An Eighty-Three Year Journey
Through Time*

Carl Keener - The Evolution of My Years: A Stream of Life in Process

PART II: Re-Envisioning Service as Writers and Publishers

Margaret Foth - The Road Taken

Paul Schrock - From Reluctant Farmer to Passionate Book Editor

Earle Fike - Flock Cheffing

Daniel Hertzler - Coming to Terms With Our Heritage

PART III: Re-Envisioning Service as International Relief and Development Workers

Jan Thompson - From Small Town to an Extended World View

H. D. Swartzendruber - My Life and Times

PART IV: Re-Envisioning Service as Interreligious Presence

Bertha Beachy - The Journey of My Life: Crossing Borders, Defying Boundaries

Kenneth Seitz - Thirty Years In and Out of the Middle East—and What Lies Between

PART V: Re-Envisioning Service as Peacebuilders

Paul Roth - A Journey of Identity

Pat Hostetter Martin - Braiding the Strands of Life

Earl Martin - Bread Boys and Wood Cutters

Edgar Metzler - An Autobiographical Stroll Through Sixty Years of Mennonite Peacemaking