

Longacre Series Seminar

NOVEMBER 12, NOON, WEST DINING ROOM

PHILIP R. WENGER PRESENTS

“Business, Faith and Social Justice: Can We Hold Them Together?”

Philip R. Wenger serves as CEO of Lancaster County Conservancy—a land trust that preserves and protects more than 6,000 acres of natural lands in Pennsylvania. Wenger is a community leader and former business owner of Isaac’s Deli, Inc.—a successful 18-unit restaurant chain he started in 1983 with a college friend. A dynamic and respected leader, known for philanthropy and community-building as well as business acumen, Wenger has served and led in a variety of organizations, including United Way, YWCA, Pennsylvania College of Art & Design, the Fulton Opera House, Lancaster Chamber of Commerce & Industry, the Workforce Investment Board, and Lancaster General Health. Wenger graduated from Eastern Mennonite University in 1982 with a Bachelor of Science in Liberal Arts. He has also studied at University of Maryland and James Madison University. Wenger is married and a member of St. James Episcopal Church in Lancaster. He enjoys golfing, organic gardening, hiking and kayaking, reading, and working to support wildlife habitat along the Susquehanna River.

Eastern
Mennonite
University

Harrisonburg, Virginia • emu.edu