FIND YOUR NEXT ADVENTURE

Through intercultural learning, we challenge students to be bold in who they are while cultivating curiosity about other beliefs and backgrounds. EMU graduates stand out in the workplace because of their ability to communicate more effectively across cultures—they are expert problem-solvers, bridge-builders, and communicators. Through education and immersive experiences, you will build confidence in navigating change and uncertainty, spark your sense of curiosity about yourself and the world, and build essential career skills in intercultural competence.

Gain life and career experiences in our nation's capital at EMU Washington Semester, an innovative internship program featuring housing, classrooms, and D.C.-based faculty. Intern at locations like the Smithsonian and Latin American Youth Center, with the potential of getting hired full-time after graduation.
