

Advising for Student-Athletes

WORK WITH YOUR ADVISOR

Advisors are trained to help you schedule for success. But it's up to you to know your sport's schedule and commitments and to communicate those during the scheduling process.

CONSIDER YOUR SEASON

Competition:

Minimum of 12 credits, 15 credits suggested.

Non-Traditional:

15-18 Credits, more challenging classes

CONSULT YOUR COACH

Competition:

Avoid late classes and labs on game days.

Practice Times:

Can you block off your schedule to train with the team?

BE EMPOWERED

Advisors are guides. You are able to ask questions, request changes, and find alternatives that suit your needs.
