HANS WEAVER PRESENTS

“Dorm Rooms: full of stinky clothes, dirty dishes, and big ideas.”

Hans Weaver is co-founder of Menno Tea, a bottled mint tea company started in his college dorm room in 2011. Currently, Menno Tea can be found in 600 stores in more than 20 states. In more recent years, Hans transitioned into the role of Grower Relations and Product Manager, working with farmers in Central and South America on behalf of one of the largest fresh produce importers on the East Coast. Hans also enjoys volunteering and is a member of the Lancaster Global Shapers, a worldwide program of the World Economic Forum, and chair of the MEDA (Mennonite Economic Development Associates) Lancaster chapter.

Hans attended EMU from 2009-10. While he was a student, he and a group of friends started a soda company called Third North Brewery.
