

The Education Student Bulletin

Vol. 2 Issue 2

EMU Education Department's Student Newsletter

October 2017

Program Notes

- ♦ Freshmen: make plans now to take your VCLA and Praxis Core: Math test (if needed) if you haven't already. It's better to take this sooner rather than waiting! There are a variety of study resources available. Stop by the education department and/or visit our website to learn more.
- ♦ Teacher Education and Student Teaching application packets will be available for pickup in the education department after fall break. Application forms are due back to the department by November 30. Be on the lookout for announcements about orientation meetings which will provide more information on the teacher education and student teaching application processes.
- ♦ There is a First Aid, CPR, and AED training scheduled for Saturday, October 28, 8am-2pm. Completing training in these areas is required for admission to student teaching (during your final year of program). If you are interested in participating in this semester's training contact me by October 16. Check out other First Aid/CPR/AED training options in the 2017-18 Teacher Education Handbook below the section anticipated program fees.
- ♦ Advising for spring semester classes will begin October 30. Look for an email from your advisor closer to this time to sign up for an advising appointment.
- ♦ Scholastic book club orders will be available for the month of October. Orders are due Friday, October 27. If you would like to order books to start your classroom library, as gifts, or for yourself you can pick up order forms in the education department or order online using class code M7427. Make checks payable to "Scholastic."

Events and Activities - Mark your Calendar!

Every Wednesday - SEA meetings - 5:40 p.m. in Campus Center lounge

Oct. 14 - Education panel at homecoming - 8 a.m. in Seminary room 123 - registration required (www.emu.edu/centennial)

SEA - childcare at homecoming - SEA needs your help to provide childcare for families attending homecoming. Childcare is available from 8am-1pm. Contact emily.clatterbuck@emu.edu to sign up.

Oct. 17 - Rockingham County Public Schools is hosting an event with Peter Brown, author of the Global Read Aloud book The Wild Robot. Event will be held at Broadway High School from 6-7 p.m.

Oct. 23-24 - Fall Break

Oct. 26 - SEA Event - First Year Teacher's Panel. Come hear from some of last year's EMU graduates who are in their first year of teaching. This event will take place at 7:30 pm (location TBD).

Nov. 9 - Institute on Best Teaching Practices for Equity, Poverty, and Diversity. This all-day institute is sponsored by Harrisonburg City Public Schools and will be held at JMU. Early registration is due October 15. Click for more information.

SEA Leadership Committee: Victoria Campbell, Ranae Nyce, Tracy Hough (faculty advisor), Kate Weaver, Dallas Crawford, Robby Chaplin, and Hannah Menefee