Director, Bureau of School Leadership and Teacher Quality

SUBJECT: Instructional Coach Endorsement Review Findings

This memo is to inform you that the review of your application to offer the Instructional Coach Endorsement has been completed.

PDE has reviewed the application and is granting the following designation:

Initial Program Approval

This designation is based on the fact that the review has indicated that your program Meets the endorsement guidelines. Program approval carries with it the agreement that the Pennsylvania Department of Education will consider for certification those persons recommended by Eastern Mennonite University. All recommendations for certification should be submitted in accordance with Pennsylvania Department of Education certification procedures

Your program will be reviewed at your next Major Review. At that time, reviewers will expect that any suggested revision or additional information as described in this program's Initial Program Review Report document will be addressed. It is also expected that all areas of the Framework Guidelines will continue to be met. Please contact your Liaison with any questions you may have.

Congratulations on developing a certificate program that meets the Autism Endorsement requirements. We commend you for your commitment to providing quality teacher preparation programs for the Commonwealth.
