

The Education Student Bulletin

EMU Education Department's Student Newsletter

Seasons Greetings!

Seasons greetings to all! The education department faculty and staff wish for you a merry and peace-filled holiday. As you finish up those papers and projects, study for finals, and wrap up the semester, we hope you find time to rest, enjoy relationships, and look forward with great anticipation to celebrating the birth of Christ. Blessings to you!

The Calendar

Events happening in December:

December 4 - Deadline for:

- Mennonite Educators Conference paragraph of interest.
- Scholastic book order forms and checks (made payable to Scholastic).

December 10 - Student Teaching

Meeting - For students scheduled to student teach spring 2016.

December 15-18 - Final Exams, & Interviews - For all those applying for admission to teacher education and student teaching who will be on a spring 2016 cross cultural.

Reminders:

- * Application forms for admission to teacher education and admission to student teaching (for academic year 2016-17) were due November 30. If you still have your forms, you need to submit them to the department ASAP.
- * If you picked up a Scholastic book club order form and plan to place an order please bring your order form(s) and check, payable to Scholastic, by Friday, December 4, 5:00 p.m.
- * The education department will cover all expenses above $50 for two students to attend the Mennonite Educators Conference. Check out the Moodle meta-education course for more details. Submit your interest paragraph by Friday, December 4, 5:00 p.m.

