

ANNOUNCEMENT OF VACANCY Psychology Program

POSITION: Fulltime, tenure track, Assistant or Associate Professor of Psychology.

QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. in a specialty area within experimental psychology (e.g., cognitive psychology); evidence of scholarship and an empirical research program that can involve undergraduates. Teaching experience preferred. Interest and skill in teaching for a post-bacc program in biomedicine is a plus.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Teaching responsibilities (typically four courses per semester) include all levels of undergraduate courses and teaching at the graduate level in the Biomedicine program. Advise and recruit students, conduct research with students, and perform university service. Applicants must have a strong commitment to high quality teaching and in serving a community of diverse learners.

POSITION DETAILS: Candidates must have a strong commitment to high quality teaching and be enthusiastic about mentoring and advising students. Preference will be given to candidates who demonstrate the ability to teach one or more of the following courses: Cognitive Psychology, Neuropsychology, Research in Psychology, Biomedical Research Design and Statistics, or Social Psychology. Other courses will be determined based on candidate expertise and departmental needs. Preference will be given to candidates who maintain a research program that can involve advanced undergraduate students.

COMPENSATION: Nine-month contract. Salary determined by education and experience. EMU uses a tenure-with-review contract system.

APPOINTMENT DATE: Position begins mid-August 2021. EMU reserves the right to fill the position at any time or keep the position open.

INQUIRIES: Application review will begin immediately. Applicants will be asked to respond to questions specific to EMU's mission and provide three letters of reference after the initial inquiry. Send cover letter, curriculum vitae, and transcripts (unofficial acceptable) to:
