6. New Business
  - a. Shannon Update
    - i. The executive on campus is continuing to discuss options for this fall. They are looking for student input into this. Shannon's biggest ask is that students continue to pay attention to their email, and remain engaged.
  - b. Statement of Support
    - i. Ariel, Anisa and Gabby have written a letter advocating for a VP of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion. They invited various clubs to give statements of affirmation. SGA's states "we affirm this as the Student Government Association. As student leaders on campus it is our duty to speak up for the wellbeing of our entire community. We believe this is a mandatory step to improving our campus climate and the inclusion of marginalized voices within our institution."

7. Open Floor

- a. Leah announced that late night pancakes will happen on Tuesday, April 28th. The event is being paired with the CAC bingo night.
- b. There are many events coming up, SGA will be hosting an %100 off Common Grounds event which will be a chance for people to check in and drink their own coffee.
- c. Amy Springer Hartsell has accepted a position as the executive advisor to the president. She will always be an advocate for students regardless of what position she holds in the university.
- d. The Forum Committee is hosting a forum at 8pm where professors will share how Covid-19 relates to their specific academic disciplines.
