COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Whether working in advocacy, healthcare, education, government, care-giving, activism, or in any kind of leadership or community building capacity, stressors add up - particularly in the midst (and aftermath?) of pandemic. Research and experience demonstrate that unaddressed trauma often leads to conflict and violence against self or with others, as trauma-affected people act out against others or become self-destructive. STAR combines theory with experiential learning to increase awareness of the impacts of trauma on the body, brain, beliefs and behaviors. The course offers tools for addressing trauma and breaking cycles of violence.

STAR's multi-disciplinary framework draws on several fields of theory and practice to support healthy, resilient individuals and communities: trauma and resilience studies (including neurobiology), restorative justice, conflict transformation, human security, and spirituality. STAR centers participants' experience and insights, while offering activities, resources, and a theoretical model to support a journey toward understanding and interrupting cycles of violence at the individual, communal and societal levels.

COURSE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES:

This course invites participants to:

- Explore and share language and resources about resilience and trauma - definitions, causes/origins, diverse impacts on body, brain, beliefs and behaviors.
- Understand how trauma response can contribute to cycles of violence at different levels: self, relationships, organizations, communities, nations, the Earth.
- Identify and practice tools and strategies to strengthen resilience and break free from cycles of violence at personal and collective levels.
- Deepen commitment to self-care and collective care as core practices for (re)generating healthy power amidst vulnerability and uncertainty.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND OTHER RESOURCES:

The following are reading materials and texts, required for all participants taking the course for credit. Note that non-credit participants are encouraged (though not required) to read the texts.

Please read before the class:

1. *Levins Morales, Aurora: Medicine Stories. Excerpt for pre-reading can be found at https://collectiveliberation.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/02/Morales_False_Memories.pdf
2. Mansfield, Katie [blog]. Why are we talking about trauma? <https://emu.edu/now/peacebuilder/2019/10/why-are-we-talking-about-trauma/>

Additional readings:

*indicates required reading

3. Articles included on course Moodle page (can be accessed 2 weeks before start of course). Note – not all are required reading.
4. *Yoder, Carolyn. The Little Book of Trauma Healing, Revised and Updated, New York, NY: Good Books, Inc. 2020 (ISBN 1680996037) (to be read before class) retail $6.
5. *Ginwright, Shawn. “Transforming Trauma into Hope and Power” (Chapter 2) in Hope and Healing in Urban Education: How Urban Activists and Teachers are Reclaiming Matters of the Heart. New York: Routledge, 2016. (ISBN 113879757X) retail $43. Chapter posted on Moodle.
6. *Brave Heart, Maria Yellow Horse. 2000. “Wakiksuyapi: Carrying the Historical Trauma of the Lakota.” Tulane University School of Social Work. (to be read before class, posted on Moodle)
7. *Levine, Peter: Waking the Tiger: Healing Trauma. Berkeley, CA: North Atlantic Books, 1997. (ISBN 155643233X) retail $12. NOTE: STAR draws deeply on the work of Peter Levine, and when I recently re-read it, I winced at some of the quotes and references. Because many of the ideas are foundational to our discussion of trauma, it is still a required text – I welcome conversation about this.
8. *Zehr, Howard: The Little Book of Restorative Justice (ISBN 1561488232) retail $6. If you have already read this book, we recommend picking up Oudshoorn, Judah, The Little Book of Restorative Justice for Sexual Abuse: Hope through Trauma, Good Books, 2015. (ISBN 1680990551) retail $6.
9. *Haines, Steve. Trauma is Really Strange. Art by Sophie Standing. Singing Dragon, 2016. (ISBN 9781848192935) retail $12.
10. *Yazzie, Robert (Honorable Chief Justice). (1994). ‘Life comes from it’: Navajo justice concepts. New Mexico Law Review, 24, Spring 1994, 175-190. (to be read before exploration of RJ, posted on Moodle)

Recommended readings

11. Van der Kolk, Bessel. The Body Keeps the Score. New York, NY: Viking Penguin, 2014. ISBN 0143127748 Chapters 4,5,6. (to be read before class) retail $11. Detailed background on impacts of trauma on body and brain. Note this text includes some graphic discussions of traumatic events, including sexual violence.
12. Doerrfeld, Cori. The Rabbit Listened. New York: Dial Books, 2018. Children’s book. ISBN 073522935X. Retail $11.
13. Holmes, Margaret M. A Terrible Thing Happened. Magination Press, 2000. Children’s book. ISBN 1557987017. Retail $10. (Available in Spanish in March 2021!)

14. McLaren, K. The Language of Emotions. Boulder, CO: SoundsTrue, 2010. ISBN 1591797691. Retail $18. Especially chapters 7 Unintentional Shamans: The Role of Trauma in Soul-Making and Culture-Building; and 8, the Role of Emotions in the Resolution of Trauma.

REQUIRED ASSIGNMENTS:

Engaging in a course focused on trauma, whether for academic credit or for training purposes, can be challenging. We invite all participants to

- Show up to all sessions, as the learning is designed as a cumulative and iterative and community-based experience. We value your presence and insights.
- Limit other commitments during the STAR week. This learning experience often requires a lot of energy and rest.
- Identify and lean on your resilience network. We will take time early in the course to identify who are some of the resource people you might lean on as you take the STAR learning journey.

Taking the course for Professional Education/Training

Homework assignments are designed to complement and enhance the in-person STAR experience.

These are not required of training participants, though you may find they enrich your experience. If you choose to do the assignments, they are just for you – no need to submit to instructor.

Taking the course for Credit

Note that assignments are designed to enhance the learning experience you get in STAR.

Please show up to all sessions. Presence in class will account for 40% of your grade.

Small assignments below add up to 60% of your grade.

Assignment	Due date/ do date	(% of grade)
SHOWING UP	All sessions	40
Lead a centering, releasing or energizing activity Each day will include centering/grounding upon arrival, an energizer when we return from lunch, and a brief energetic release/brush-off before departure. For-credit participants are invited to lead at least one of these.	At least once during the STAR week	3

DAILY CLASS SCHEDULE:

The schedule distributed before the training (and in hard copy on the first day), the Moodle page, and the STAR Level 1 Workbook lay out the flow/sequence of topics we will cover.

Participants are expected to attend all sessions of STAR, beginning Monday morning and finishing around 1pm on Friday.

Timeline for assignments (for-credit students only):

During STAR	Lead an activity (grounding, centering, energizing or releasing)
Mon Jun 27	1) Reflections on 4 STAR activities 2) Reflection on RJ practice example(s) 3) 20 Questions
Fri July 15	8 reading responses
Mon August 1	Letter

SPI ATTENDANCE POLICY:

It is expected that individuals registering for an SPI session will attend the entire course (barring unforeseen travel delays or emergencies). Please contact SPI directly at spi@emu.edu before registering if you know you will have to miss any days of a course. SPI certificates are provided to participants only if they miss no more than one class day unless prior arrangements have been made with the SPI Director. For-credit participants are expected to attend all class sessions unless they are given permission from the instructor to miss a session. SPI courses rely on active student participation in a learning community. If a participant misses class repeatedly and this disrupts the learning for others, they will be asked to leave the course and no money will be refunded for remaining course time.

GRADING CRITERIA AND OTHER POLICIES:

SPI provides all students taking the course for graduate credit some supplemental information that will serve as a resource after SPI when students are working on course assignments. This includes information on library resources, EMU's academic integrity policy, and guidelines for writing graduate papers, information regarding the grading scale and course deadlines, and then some suggestions we have for you in order to make your experience of taking SPI courses for graduate credit as successful as possible! These documents are all available online.
