

SPI Community Day

February 2, 2018, 8:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

PRACTICAL
TOOLS FOR HARD
PROBLEMS IN OUR COMMUNITIES

Are you living and working near the Shenandoah Valley and interested in enhancing your work in the community? Join us for an engaging training and workshop series that aims to enhance your facilitation, peacebuilding and organizational tools for your work in the community. Participants will enjoy: coffee and pastries, a morning plenary presentation, morning and afternoon workshops, and a lunch presentation over a catered meal.

Short trainings offered in workshop format will serve as an introduction to several courses that will be offered at the 2018 Summer Peacebuilding Institute.

Morning Plenary: Ram Bhagat

Lunch Presentation: Roxy Allen Kioko

Building Resilience in Body, Mind and Spirit

Instructor: Katie Mansfield

Mapping the Justice Needs of Your Community

Instructor: Carl Stauffer

Transformative Leadership for Organizational Development

Instructors: Elizabeth Girvan & David Brubaker

Conflict-Competent Leadership

Instructor: Gloria Rhodes

Peace Education Prelude

Instructors: Ed Brantmeier

Organizing Your Community for Change

Instructor: Timothy Seidel

One-on-One Meetings:

A Relational Tool for Mobilizing Public Participation

Instructor: Johonna Turner

Registration is $50.

Visit our website for more information: emu.edu/cjp/spi/spicommunityday

emu.edu/cjp/spi/spicommunityday

A PROGRAM OF EASTERN MENNONITE UNIVERSITY

Harrisonburg, Virginia